

Pro Loco Base1 English Course – Lecture 2 – Present simple - November 6th , 2006 – Prepared by Marco Ruocco, pronunciation source from soundsofenglish.org

United Kingdom - Scotland	Rain	Beer
Inglese <con pronuncia facilitata indicativa>		Italiano
November 6th – I go to Scotland <november sixt, ai go tu scotland>		6 Novembre –vado in Scozia
The airplane lands in Glasgow - <de eirplein lends in glasgo>		L'aereo atterra a Glasgow
The weather is bad – it always rains <de ueeder is bad – it ollueis reins >		Il tempo è brutto – piove sempre
I take a taxi to the city centre- <ai teic e taxi tu de siti senter>		Prendo un taxi per andare in centro
I am hungry – I go to a pub <ai em hangry – ai go tu e phub>		Ho fame – vado in birreria
I order a boiled potato with Ceddar <ai order e boild poteto uid ceddar>		Ordino una patata bollita col formaggio Ceddar
I ask to the bartender: “A pint of lager please!” <ai ask tu de bartenda: e paint of lagher, pliis>		Chiedo al barista: “una media di birra chiara, per piacere!”
Now I feel fine <nau ai fiil fains>		Ora mi sento a posto

infinite	past	participle	italiano
to go	went	gone	andare
to ask	asked	asked	chiedere
to be	was	been	essere
to take	took	taken	prendere
to feel	felt	felt	sentire
to land	landed	landed	atterrare
to order	ordered	ordered	ordinare

Per dire bene quella “a”, occorre spalancare bene la bocca hat <hat>	cappello
out <aut>	fuori
lie <lai>	bugia, menzogna