Dear student,

my name is Frederick Gunter and I welcome you to Frankfurt. During the day I work as a Lufthansa airplane pilot. In the evenings, I help foreign tourists finding their own way around in the city of Frankfurt. My friend owns the Hotel "Holiday Inn" here in Frankfurt. Now we go together to the hotel. You relax in the hotel. The hotel "Holiday Inn" is an American hotel. I also have many friends in America. If you like America, one day we go to America together.

Now we go to the Hotel. I know the way to the Hotel, now I drive you there. On the map you can follow the driving instructions, if you like. You need the instructions to return to the airport once your journey to Germany is over, in January 2007, when you return to Milan. Now simply enjoy the short bus trip. Here the weather is very cold, and shortly it will snow.

The Hotel is comfortable and the rooms are very large. If you are hungry, near the Hotel you find many restaurants, with traditional German cuisine (if you like it), or with many international dishes – however, Frankfurt is not the best place for pizza. Since it is Christmas time, there are many attractions and little markets around the city center. Explore freely what the city has to offer.

At the marketplace, Gunter says: "My American friend John Denver now sings this Christmas song just for you"

"They know that santa's on his way / He's loaded lots of toys and goodies on his sleigh / And every mother's child is going to spy / To see if reindeer really know how to fly / And so I'm offering this simple phrase / To kids from one to ninety-two / Although it's been said, many times / Many ways/

Merry Christmas, to you"
